Memoranda of Understanding

The practice of persons being kept as “off-the-record” detainees in military prisons has been well documented.<sup>1</sup> In this context, “ghost” or “unregistered” detainees are understood to refer to those detainees who were at some point during their detention, or remain: not “officially” registered at military facilities; “kept off the books”; and/or denied access to the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC).<sup>2</sup> Documents produced by the Department of Defense on March 3, 2005 pursuant to an ACLU FOIA request<sup>3</sup> and a media report in the

It was very difficult keeping track of these OGA because they were not processed until OGA decided to turn them over to us. COL PAPPAS was not happy with that procedure.

Washington Post dated March 11, 2005<sup>4</sup> indicate that this arrangement for "ghosting" was not "ad hoc" but was embodied in a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between military officials and the CIA.<sup>5</sup> The exact contours of this arrangement are not publicly known as a copy of this MOU was not included in the documents released by the Department of Defense.<sup>6</sup>

Records Requested

We seek the following records relating to the arrangement described above:

1. Any memorandum of understanding, or other record reflecting an agreement or proposed agreement between agencies, or between any agency and any subdivision or official, concerning the handling of ghost or unregistered detainees. This includes but is not limited to:
  - (a) Any record reflecting communications about whether or not to draft any memorandum of understanding or agreement regarding unregistered or ghost detainees.
  - (b) Any record reflecting communications about the content of any memorandum of understanding or agreement regarding unregistered or ghost detainees.

Amnesty International is a non-government organization and a world-wide movement of members who campaign for internationally recognized human rights. AI publishes reports, press-briefings, newsletters and urgent action requests informing the public about human rights, including the prohibition on torture and the prohibition on disappearances. AI also disseminates information through its website www.amnesty.org.

The Center for Human Rights and Global Justice is a research center at NYU Law School. CHRJGJ aims to advance human rights and respect for the rule of law through advocacy, scholarship, education and training. CHRJGJ publishes reports and operates a website www.nyuhr.org discussing human rights issues.

The International Human Rights Clinic is a project of CHRJGJ and an official program at NYU Law School, composed of students and directed by clinical professors, who engage in research and advocacy on human rights issues.

Washington Square Legal Services is a not-for-profit corporation that houses the clinical program of NYU Law School.

The requesters plan to disseminate the information disclosed as a result of this FOIA request through the channels described above.

Expedited Processing

Expedited processing is warranted as there is a "compelling need" for the records sought in this request. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(i)(I). The requesters are primarily engaged in "disseminating information" and there is an "urgency to inform the public concerning the actual or alleged Federal Government Activity." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(II). See also 32 C.F.R. § 286.4(d)(3)(ii) (DOD); 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(d)(1)(ii) (DHS); 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(d)(1)(ii) (DOJ); 22 C.F.R. § 171.12(b)(2) (DOS).

Government's role in upholding human rights. As indicated above, this information is disseminated through published reports and CHRGI's website. The Clinic actively supports this work, and WSLS houses the clinic. As reflected in the media reports discussed above, there is an urgent need to provide the public with information relating to the U.S. government's practices concerning unregistered or ghost detainees.

There is also a "compelling need" because failure to obtain the records on an expedited basis "could reasonably be expected to pose an imminent threat to the life or physical safety of an individual." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(I). See also 32 C.F.R. § 286.4(d)(3)(i) (DOD); 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(d)(1)(i) (DHS); 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(d)(1)(i) (DOJ); 22 C.F.R. § 171.12(b)(1) (DOS). This Request arises in the context of allegations of ongoing unlawful detention and abuse of individuals with the involvement of U.S. agents abroad. Failure to publicly expose and thereby halt the practices prompting this Request could reasonably be expected to pose an imminent threat to the physical safety and lives of such individuals.

AI and WSLS certify that the foregoing statements regarding the basis for expedited processing are true and correct to the best of their knowledge and belief. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(vi). See also 32 C.F.R. § 286.4(d)(3)(iii) (DOD); 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(d)(3) (DHS); 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(d)(3) (DOJ); 22 C.F.R. § 171.12(b) (DOS).

We expect release of all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. We also reserve the right to appeal a decision to withhold any information or to deny a waiver of fees.

As indicated above, we are applying for expedited processing of this Request. Notwithstanding your determination of that application, we look forward to your reply to the Request within twenty (20) days, as required under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i).

Dear Ms. Olshansky:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, dated 21 December 2004, in which you requested certain documents pertaining to "unregistered, CIA and/or 'ghost' detainees." We will begin processing your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 431, as amended. If documents exist, to the extent your latest request covers any material requested in your previous requests for information pertaining to detainees (F-2004-01456 and F-2004-00066), it will be treated as a duplicate request and not processed. We assigned your request the number referenced above. Please refer to this number in future correspondence about this request.

I reviewed your request for a fee waiver, in accordance with the CIA's FOIA regulations, published in part 1900.13(b) of the Code of Federal Regulations. I have denied your request for a fee waiver because your request does not meet the standards for a fee waiver specified in the Agency's regulations. You have the right to appeal this determination to the Agency Release Panel. If you wish to do so, please submit your appeal to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 45 days of the date of this letter.

Based upon the information provided in your letter and the requirements of Agency regulations, I have determined that your request falls into the "all other" fee category, which means that you will be responsible for search costs, beyond the first two hours of search time, and reproduction costs, beyond the first 100 pages. In accordance with Agency regulations, copying costs will be assessed at the rate of ten cents per page.

I reviewed your request for expedited processing, in accordance with Agency regulations. Your request does not meet the standards for expedited processing specified in Agency regulations and therefore is denied. The Agency will process your request in accordance with its standard procedures.

Sincerely,
